Scouting The Shops

With Sally

We, SHOPPING SALLY, do hereby resolve:

1. That we will be in bed every night at eight o'clock—on a soft new mattress from Daly City Mattress company.
2. To improve our mind during 1941. We're going to start by seeing Dorothy Lamour in "Moon Over Burma" at the Daly City theatre, Sunday.
3. Not to covet our neighbor's possessions. As a matter of fact, we're going to buy a new Zenith recorder from Byrne's so that she can covet ours.
4. Not to bite off more than we can chew. But we can chew a lot, when it comes to delicious steaks from Westlake Market.
5. To boil John's eggs just right—not hard, not soft, no indigestion for John, no tears for Sally. Fresh eggs from Robertson's Egg store.
6. Not to peek through knotholes at football games but to sit grandly in the bleachers with our coat freshly-cleaned by Beeson's.
7. Not to say "Yes, dear" to John, when we mean "No Sir!" Like "Yes, dear, we love to shell peas"—when we can buy them all fresh and tempting—and shelled—from Farmers Market.
8. Not to eat so many sweet things. Except for a few pies and cakes and cookies from Geneva Bakery. And maybe a few pastries.
9. To save our money. But that's easy. With all the bargains at Daly City Cut Rate Market, we'll have our tin cup filled in no time.
10. Not to make such faces when we drink John's highballs. We think if we buy h i m some really good liquor from Gelsi's everything can be patched up.
11. Not to feed our guests peanut butter sandwiches. The last time we did, John's boss said tsk, tsk, wasn't it a pity that a nice hard worker like John had such a flighty wife who didn't know enough to keep

Here Come The Merrymakers! Strike Up The Band!

"Strike Up the Band" now on the Daly City screen with Mickey Rooney striking up the drums, Judy Garland striking up new records as the screen's most talented song and dance starlet, and Paul Whiteman swinging the baton for his famous orchestra in the gayest, fastest, swingingest musical since "Babes in Arms." In this scene Mickey and Judy are shown with their high-school band who win a national radio contest in the rollicking, tune-packed story.

Famous World Traveler To Speak Here

Local residents have a treat in store for them on Monday, January 6, 7:30 p. m., when Commander A. W. Scott, famous traveler who has circled the globe some thirteen times will speak at the Jefferson Union high school auditorium. Free tickets may be procured at the office of The Daly City Record, 3317 San Jose avenue.

Commander Scott, retired from the Royal Naval Air Service, has visited practically every country on earth and most of the World's big cities. He had an excellent record with the Naval and Air Forces during the World War.

He is still traveling thousands of miles yearly, as a speaker for the Greyhound Lines. The commander scouts up and down the highways and byways of America, searching for the "Unreal Realities" which form the basis of his talks and radio programs. "Unreal Realities," he explains, are true facts so strange that they seem unbelievable.

"I never try to make a 'speech' when I talk about "Unreal Realities" Commander Scott said. "Rather, my idea is to tell interesting yarns about my experiences and travels, and to discuss them in an intimate and informal way. The sights that are to be seen and the experiences that are to be lived

WARBLERS THREE

CELEBRATING the start of their fifth year on the air with Phil Spitalny's unique all-girl orchestra, the Three Little Words—Frances, Connie and Fern—here show by their smiles the way they feel about the anniversary. Known to millions of listeners and considered one of the best-matched trios on the airwaves, these three ladies of song may be heard every Sunday night on the "Hour of Charm," over the red network of NBC.

For a hurry-to-breakfast aroma try crusty Oatmeal Muffins

Easily made this time-saving way

• Want to add something different . . . something more substantial to your breakfast menus for cold mornings? Then be sure to try these crusty little Oatmeal Breakfast Muffins. They're full of old-fashioned goodness and flavor. And their tantalizing aroma is enough to start any sleepyhead hustling toward the breakfast table.

You won't mind preparing these Oatmeal Muffins often, either, for you can measure ingredients and start the muffins the night before. Next morning it takes only a jiffy to cut in triple-creamed Spry and whisk the ingredients together. This all-purpose shortening is so pure it allows the nutlike oatmeal flavor to come through perfectly.

Cut out this tempting recipe and surprise your family with it tomorrow. You'll vote these Oatmeal Breakfast Muffins a satisfying treat.

OATMEAL BREAKFAST MUFFINS

1½ cups sour milk
2 cups rolled oats
1 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon salt
2 tablespoons sugar
½ cup Spry (triple-creamed shortening)
1 egg, beaten

Pour sour milk over rolled oats and let stand 6 to 8 hours, or overnight.

Sift flour with soda, salt and sugar. Cut in Spry until mixture is like meal. Add egg and oatmeal mixture to dry ingredients and stir vigorously until all flour is dampened. Bake in Spry-greased muffin pans in hot oven (425° F.) 25 to 30 minutes. Makes 12 large muffins.

(All measurements in this recipe are level)

Vary Your Breads

—By Frances Lee Barton—

BREAD may be the "staff of life" but that does not mean that you must go through your entire life leaning on one staff. Vary your breads and you will find your meals much more appetizing and pleasing. Here is a recipe for a Date Orange Nut Bread that will prove an ideal presentation for "Variation Number One":

Date Orange Nut Bread

1¾ cups sifted flour; 1¾ teaspoons double-acting baking powder; ¾ teaspoon salt; ¾ cup finely cut dates; ½ cup chopped walnut meats; ½ cup milk; ⅓ cup melted butter or other shortening; 2 eggs, well beaten; orange rind and syrup mixture.

Sift flour once, measure, add baking powder and salt, and sift again. Add dates and nuts and mix well. Combine milk, shortening, eggs, and orange rind and syrup mixture. Add to flour mixture and blend. Bake in greased loaf pan, 3 x 4 x 3 inches, in slow oven (325° F.) 35 minutes; then increase heat to moderate (350° F.) and bake 25 minutes longer, or until done. Store 6 to 8 hours or overnight before using.

To prepare orange rind and syrup mixture, remove skins in quarters from 2 medium oranges. Lay quarters flat, remove and discard white part. With a very sharp knife, cut remaining rind in shreds. Add 1½ cups water and ¾ teaspoon salt, and simmer 15 minutes. Drain, reserving liquid. Measure ¼ cup; add rind and ½ cup sugar, and cook gently 6 to 8 minutes, or until thickened. Cool.

Amber Hunting

One of the oldest attractions of the Baltic is still an attraction—namely, picking up amber on the coast of Lithuania, the "land of northern gold," known to early Greeks and Romans.

Volcanoes for Visitors

Stromboli, the volcano of the Italian Lipari islands, provides visitors with virtually continuous activity, providing hourly or two-hourly eruptions, of enough violence to give tourists a few moments of thrill as the glowing lava is shot up from the core of the earth.

U. S. Assessed Valuation

The assessed valuation of property in the United States is estimated by the department of commerce at $139,000,000,000.

A SHORT STORY - -

Mrs. "A" sent her mattress to an out-of-town shop to be renovated at "wholesale" cost. Mrs. "A" had to have her mattress renovated again three months later.

Mrs. "B" traded her chesterfield set for a new one on the budget plan. She'll be making payments for the next three years.

Mrs. "C" phoned for our free pick-up service, had her old mattress made into a new innerspring and had her chesterfield set renovated and re-upholstered. She is living happily hereafter, for the "REST" of her life.
